

Judging:

All entries will be considered by our panel of judges following the close of the competition on 20 March 2025. A shortlist will be provided to our guest judge, Adam White, who will select the winning poem(s).

The judging panel will also select the winning entry by a North Somerset resident, for the £100 prize.

Prize-winners will be contacted during the week commencing 7 May 2025.

Awards:

All of the winning poets will be invited to read their work (pre-recorded or in person) at the awards ceremony in Clevedon, which is currently planned for 7 June 2025.

Publication:

Clevedon Litfest/motorcitysixty intend to publish the winning and selected shortlisted entries in an anthology. This will appear on their website and will also be used in future, relevant promotions.

The anthology will be available in electronic format, free of charge, to those whose poems appear in the publication. If a print version is produced at a later date, it will be made available for purchase by entrants at a discounted price (plus any post + packaging costs).